Financial Performance: Net income in 2010 down to IDR 12.7831 billion, while in 2009 booked income amounted IDR 16.70 billion.

Brief History: The Company was the first private company to develop Indonesia's marble resources, and has been involved in the extraction and processing of marble for twenty five years. Established in 1974, the Company began mining beige marble from its quarry near Bandung, and subsequently achieved a dominant market position for its material in Indonesia. The Company is involved in the extraction, processing and distribution of marble and other stone materials. Its extensive quarry sites, large capacity modern processing facilities and international sales network combine to make PT Citatah one of the largest, fully integrated marble producers in the world.
