Business Distribution and Trade of Phone Cellular
Company Status PMDN

Financial Performance: The Company booked net income at IDR 256.298 billion in 2011, slightly increase compare to net income booked in 2010 at IDR 218.631 billion.

Brief History: Erajaya Group grew from its humble origin in the early 1990s to become national powerhouse in distribution and retail of mobile communication products. Today, Erajaya Group is the official distributor for 10 international mobile communication brands and an authorized partner for major mobile operators. Recently, the Group has launched its own mobile handset under the name of Venera.

Ardy Hady Wijaya started a micro business trading handsets after observing a growing popularity in mobile services and became convinced that there would be a very promising prospect in distributing and retailing mobile communication products. As a micro business with limited working capital, he often had to personally deliver the products to his retail partners. By 2000, Ardy's hard work and persistence enabled him to open two retail outlets in the bustling Roxy Mas and Mangga Dua shopping complexes, which were Jakarta's epicenter for mobile handset retailing.

In 1996, PT Erajaya Swasembada, or Erajaya, the establishment of what we now know today as the Erajaya Group, was incorporated.

By 2004, the Group strategically partnered with Satelin-do's (now Indosat) as an authorized distributor for its products. This led to a chain of partnerships with most major mobile operators in Indonesia, including Telkomsel, XL, Esia, and Axis.

The following year, Erajaya was appointed to be one of Nokia's authorized distributors in Indonesia. Most recently, along with an acquisition of PT Teletama Arta Mandiri (TAM) in 2011, the Erajaya Group currently provides a comprehensive portfolio of international brands to become Indonesia's leading distributor and retailer of mobile communication products. Today, Erajaya Group brand portfolio consists of Apple, Acer, BlackBerry, Dell, Huawei, LG, Motorola, Nokia, Samsung, Sony Ericsson, and Venera, the Group's own mobile handset brand.

Erajaya Group has grown into a nationwide distribution network make up of 70 distribution branches, 236 stores in 27 cities and partnership with more than 16,000 third-party resellers. It is the market leader for mobile communication products distribution in Indonesia commanding 24% market share in 2010.
