Business Distributor of Building Materials
Company Status PMDN

Financial Performance: In 2012, the company booked net profit at IDR 65.676 billion, or decreasing from IDR 75.456 billion in 2011.

Brief History: In 1966, Budyanto Totong and his 3 brothers: Totong Kurniawan, Darmawan Putra Totong, and Eka Santosa opened a small paint shop at Jalan Gajah Mada 56, Jakarta. This paint shop called "Toko Tjat Sentosa" which sold paint products. Not only selling paints, business kept developing with selling also building materials with more variety products. Having moved to a bigger location as our head office in 1970, Budyanto Totong and his brothers launched an offensive plan. They saw an opportunity from merely selling into marketing and distributing. This is the beginning of the business as a distribution of building materials. With the Company's distribution business rapidly grew, the need for a modern management approach became inevitable and led to the establishment of PT Catur Sentosa Adiprana in December 1983. Dreams as a leading distributor with best management in distribution paint and building materials became reality. In present, the Company is also a public company which is having 30 branches, more than 4.000 employees, and distributing more than 30,000 product items with a cooperation with trustable from 25 major principals (major brands) and others. In 1997, Totong family saw other opportunity, a big retail business by introducing super-market of building materials concept in Indonesia with brand MITRA10. Nowadays, the Company is having a distribution of building materials, chemical products, and modern retail of building materials with networking spread its reach throughout Indonesia. With continuing to grow and develop its businesses, the Company is strengthening the equity structure through Initial Public Offering. The Company has become a member of Indonesia Stock Exchange and listed on December 12, 2007.
