Financial Performance: The Company recorded net income at IDR 12.430 billion in 2012, declining from IDR 120.214 billion booked in 2011.

Brief History: PT INTRACO PENTA,Tbk is founded in 1970 in Jakarta. We supply and service our many customers in timber, mining, Oil & gas, construction, pulp and paper, petrochemical, cement and agriculture industries through our broad product support & marketing network. Having been in this business for thirty-eight years, INTA has won the trust of its principals, including well-known heavy equipment manufacturers VOLVO, Ingersoll-Rand, and Bobcat and its customers, which comprise companies in the mining, construction/ infrastructure, forestry, agro-business, oil and gas, and general industries. INTA has capitalized on the trust it has built with its principals and customers by positioning itself as a Company that offers the highest quality products and reliable services. A large number of product lines distributed by INTA were leaders in market penetration. In 1993, INTA listed its shares on the Indonesia Stock Exchange (previously Jakarta Stock Exchange). Starting as a trading company in Jakarta, INTA has continuously expanded its network throughout Indonesia. It has now more than 30 branches from Sumatra to Papua. This expansion has been supported by a qualified workforce of more than 800 employees by the end of 2008. As a customer-focused company, INTA aims to be a leading total solution provider through its solution channels. Total solutions are realized through INTA's subsidiary Intan Baruprana Finance (IBF) and INTA's affiliated companies, which include Kasuari, Terrafactor Indonesia and Columbia Chrome Indonesia. With specialization in construction equipment financing, IBF has been voted one of the best multi-finance companies by the leading Indonesian business media for the past several years.
