Brief History: The history of PT. Sekar Laut, Tbk. began from a marine products trading in the city of Sidoarjo, East Java in 1966. The business then developed to a traditional shrimp cracker production. With hard work and perseverance, the business grew rapidly from a home industry to a well established company. PT. Sekar Laut, Tbk. established in July 19, 1976 in the form of Limited Liability Company and then legally enlisted as legal corporate body in the justice department on March 1, 1978.

Diverse plants and animal live in the gracious, prosperous land, which is also rich in cultures. The fertile Indonesian land provides the best vegetables and fruits. The Indonesian sea is also known for its variously rich fisheries and other sea product. PT. Sekar Laut, Tbk. respect the natural treasure of Indonesia by processing it as wise as can be to provide quality food products and to care for natural resources for raw material continuity. All of the foods that we produce are 100% made from natural ingredients and processed hygienically hence become a delicious food, safely consumed, healthy and able to be enjoyed by people in Indonesia and around the world.

"Krupuk" is a well-known Indonesia specialty food. Shrimp krupuk or shrimp crackers is by far its most popular kind that originated from Sidoarjo, home and activity centre of PT. Sekar Laut, Tbk. Today, krupuk has transformed into a healthy and nutritious snack that is widely-known worldwide. Thanks to the persistent entrepreneurial effort, innovation and continuous quality control that has been done by the company throughout the years. Beside krupuk, PT. Sekar Laut, Tbk. has also develop other food productions such as tomato sauce, chili sauce, instant cooking spices, seasoned flour and others. To face the challenge of new millennium, the management team has decided to enter the snack market with new product variation; which is the fried product. Company product line:
