

JASA MARGA (PERSERO) TBK.

Company Profile

Jasa Marga is a state owned company with the line business of planning, constructing, operating and maintaining toll roads along with developing and maximizing the use of land in toll road areas and other related businesses. Jasa Marga's business characteristics are defensive and resistant to fluctuated condition of global economy.

Based on the toll road concessions granted directly from the Government, Jasa Marga currently manages and operates 13 toll road concessions through its nine branch offices and one subsidiary

Apart from developing more toll roads to add the length of the toll roads operated, the Company also develops other businesses by capitalizing various assets owned such as the following:

- Utility and land rent.
- Rest area and property development.
- Advertisement
- Various services, including toll road operation from other parties.

Going forward, the Company's business prospect will be robust as it is supported by new concessions with sound financial feasibility that is integrated with existing concession portfolio, strong and trusted financial structure, as well as assets utilization in prospective businesses, which, in turn will support the Company's sustainable growth.

The total number of employees at March 31st, 2016 was 4,500.
