Brief History: Lippo Pacific is a member of the Investment Banking Division of Lippo Group, A Leading Banking, Financial Services and Property Development Group with strong roots in South East Asia. The Company's Business Portofolio includes traditional multifinance products like leasing and factoring, together with venture capital investments and structured finance. In addition, services in the areas of syndications, private placements and financial advisory work provide an opportunity for value added fee based activities. Pacific Utama also has strategic investments in other finance companies and a securities house. These investment include a 100% ownership of Lippo Merchants Finance, a vehicle for conducting multifinance activities, minority interests in joint venture multifinance companies, viz., BT Lippo Finance (a joint venture with Bankers Trust), Daiwa Lippo Leasing Corporation (a joint venture with the Daiwa Bank of Japan), PT BNP Lippo Utama Leasing (a joint venture with Banque Nationale de Paris) and GMAC Lippo Finance (a joint venture with General Motors Acceptance Corporation, USA) in additional. Company has a shareholding in Lippo Securities, a publicly listed and leading securities company in Indonesia. Company's investments in the multifinance area represent strategic patnerships with strong international banks. We believe that these investments and patnerships serve to strengthen the company's network and prestige, besides enhancing the scope and depth of our services. The share of Lippo Pacific are traded at the Jakarta and Surabaya Stock Exchange. In late 2009, took a strategic step to separate the operating assets of its department store business (MDS) into another publicly listed company, PT Pacific Utama Tbk (PU), which later became a majority-owned (>90%) subsidiary of the Company. This separation process allowed the Company to firmly establish MDS as a separate legal entity different from its other core business, Matahari Food Business Division (MFB).
